

February 3, 1949

Last Rites Conducted on Friday for Floyd Honey

Funeral services for Floyd Honey, who passed away at a Webster hospital last Monday, following a lingering illness, were held Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Paetznick Funeral Home at Groton. The Rev. Dwayne Knight of Conde officiated. Interment was in the Groton union cemetery.

Pallbearers were William, Leslie and Glenn Honey, Eugene Craig, Jack Gilchrist and Lynn Bowles.

Mr. Honey was born January 6, 1891, in Claremont township, where he resided most of his life. Mr. and Mrs. Honey spent four years at Long Beach, Calif., and since their return in the spring of 1946, Mr. Honey had been employed by the local High Grade Oil Co., until a few months ago.

On September 19, 1912, he was united in marriage with Teressa Olson at Aberdeen. To this union four children were born, three of whom survive.

Mr. Honey leaves to mourn his departure his wife, a daughter (Lolian) Mrs. Lester Rehfeld of Warner; two sons, Alan Honey of San Diego, Calif., and James Honey of Tujunga, Calif.; four brothers. John of Bellingham, Wash.; Ralph of Westminster, B. C., Canada; Harold of Seattle, Wash., and Dean of Putney, and one sister, Mrs. Anna Jones of Brookings. He was preceded in death by a son, Carroll, who passed away in 1918.

Mr. Honey was a true and loving husband and father, a kind and thoughtful friend and neighbor and his passing will be keenly felt by a host of friends. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Among those from away who attended the last rites were: Alar Honey, San Diego, and James Honey Tujunga, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Wahpeton, N. D.; Mrs. Arthur Neumaier, Glencoe, Minn.; Mrs. Geo Mireau, Rice Lake, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rehfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Walte Rehfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Rehfeld of Warner, and Mrs. Anna Jones of Brookings.